Eucharistic Prayer

As Catholics we believe that the bread and wine offered by the priest during this prayer (the words of Consecration) truly become the Body and Blood of Christ - our spiritual food for the journey through this life, and a foretaste of the Heavenly Wedding Banquet – when Christ is fully united with His bride – the Church .

Guidelines for receiving Communion: As we gather to witness this couple exchange their vows and begin their new live together, we all participate in the prayers and in hearing and responding to the Word of God. However, out of respect for our Catholic belief in the Eucharist, we request that those who are not Catholic and those who are Catholic but not duly prepared, refrain from coming forward to receive Communion. For further clarification, see the guidelines on the inside cover of the Missalette in the pew pocket in front of you.
